KVHS lets you enrich your education with courses that may not be offered at your school.

“Online teachers don’t have to deal with student issues—their only job is making sure students learn.”

—Powell County High School Student

Kentucky Virtual High School (KVHS) is an online service delivering secondary educational courses to students across the state. KVHS doesn’t replace the off-line, or traditional high school—KVHS supplements it.

Presenting required courses in English/language arts, mathematics, sciences and social studies, the KVHS also offers a wide selection of foreign language and enrichment classes. KVHS helps students get better prepared for college. Students even earn college credit for some classes.

The great thing about KVHS is that it lets you study wherever you want, whether it’s at home, school or the public library. It also:

- Provides opportunities for interaction
- Offers help for computer-related problems
- Offers a self-assessment quiz

To find out if online courses are for you, contact your guidance counselor. You can enroll in KVHS through your local school district, and you’ll find out the KVHS is the real deal!
